

Audatex Lean Six Sigma for Collision Repair™

“It was amazing. It opened my eyes. We anticipate a 35% increase in efficiency and throughput in all areas, including average length of jobs, parts and supplies procurement, and cycle times.”

Vartan Ghazarian, Assistant Manager, Supreme Collision Centre, Aurora, Ontario, Canada

The Industry's First Online Lean Program Just for Shops

Audatex Lean Six Sigma for Collision Repair is the only offering of the time-tested Lean methodology that has been adapted specifically for collision repairers. Through streaming video and audio, this online program provides guidance that will help you immediately improve operations and increase efficiencies. Designed to accommodate busy shop schedules, this flexible Lean training course details targeted methods on how to run a more productive shop that will deliver high-value work, satisfy customers and drive greater loyalty.

Improved Efficiency Through a Proven Approach

Lean Six Sigma is used by some of the world's most successful companies, including Toyota Motor Corporation. Leveraging the proven Lean philosophy for the auto collision industry, Audatex has developed a simple and powerful approach to implementing Lean Six Sigma principles. With this program, you'll discover how to identify areas for improvement, eliminate waste, and re-engineer processes and operations. The result? Greater freedom to grow your business.
